

Disciplinary Policy

A major infraction shall include, but not be limited to:

- 1) Nonconsensual or reckless physical contact with a referee or player;
- 2) Spitting, throwing or kicking anything at a referee or player;
- 3) Participating in a physical altercation with any participant in the game.

Any coach, player or other bench personnel found guilty by the league of a major infraction shall be suspended for 1 game serviced by the WYSA, with no regard to the suspension occurring in the regular or playoff season. All suspensions shall be served as soon as practicable, beginning with the next scheduled game. The suspension will carry over into the succeeding season if not practicable to the current season. Consequent infractions could result in additional suspension to be determined by the WYSA board.

A minor infraction shall include, but not be limited to:

- 1) Use of profanity toward any game participant;
- 2) Verbal abuse of referees;
- 3) Red card ejection from a game;
- 4) Use of tobacco products, alcohol, or illegal drugs during a WYSA game.
- 5) Intentional violation of WYSA or CJSA rules.

Any coach, player or other bench personnel found to be guilty by the WYSA of a minor infraction, shall be given either a written or verbal warning. Consequent infractions could result in a suspension to be determined by the WYSA board.

The provision of this conduct shall be in effect from the time one is within the visual confines of the field, throughout, and until one has left the visual confines of the field of any game serviced by the WYSA. Any coach, player or other bench personnel serving a suspension shall not be in attendance at any game serviced by the WYSA until the suspension has been completed. Within the visual confines of the field shall be deemed in attendance. Attendance at any game serviced by the WYSA by a suspended coach, player or other bench personnel shall constitute breach of this policy. Additional sanctions may be imposed by the WYSA board.

The WYSA board shall be responsible to impose these sanctions by a majority vote of those present.
